SHINGLES $3 PER M

The Consolidated Lumber Company of Torrance have an advertisement in this issue that will be of interest to everyone who expect to make improvements or build a house of any description. Shingles at $3 per thousand, and 1 x 4 sheathing for $25 per M; 1 x 12 boards at $25 or thousand, are very attractive prices indeed, and represent a reduction of nearly 50 per cent over war prices. Many bargains may be had from time to time by watching Consolidated Lumber Co. ads in this newspaper.

TORRANCE —INSIDE— FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF TORRANCE

"The Church of the Open Bible." The pastor will preach Sunday evening on the subject:

"A SCARLET THREAD SIX THOUSAND YEARS AGO."

At the morning service the subject which was commenced last week will be continued: "THE REVIVAL THAT IS COMING TO THIS CHURCH IF—"

Music of interest and profit will be rendered at both services, Mr. Solomon singing a tenor solo at the morning hour in harmony with the theme to be discussed.

"For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Galatians 3:26.

All are welcome. Rev. Stanley H. Thorpe, Pastor.

EACH PAY THE BEST

"This shall be my best effort. My honest effort will make it a success. I expect to meet disappointment, annoyance and possible rebuffs, but there to overcome."

"I expect to have success, because I am after it. I shall be cheerful, earnest and persevering, because it is the difficulties in life that show the qualities of the man."

"Whatever may be the result of the day's work, I shall seek my bed at night with the consciousness that not one hour was wasted, that I did the best I could."
